

Letter Lab Gems

אֵלֶיךָ בֵּית

א ב ג ד ה ו

ז ח ט י כ ל

מ נ ס ע פ צ

ק ר ש ט פ צ

ש ת ת ת

A Game-Based Curriculum that weaves
Hebrew Phonology, Letter Knowledge,
Vocabulary and Emergent Literacy.

For Shelf Works, Centers and Small Groups

 HebrewScouts.com

PHONOLOGICAL PROCESSING

Behold are 5 card game experiences to prepare children for Hebrew Literacy in the areas of phonological processing and Hebrew vocabulary.

LETTER KNOWLEDGE

Within these 32 cards lies a rich curriculum through which some of the most mystical Torah concepts have been distilled and presented in a manner that is accessible and relatable even to young learners. Included are teaching instructions that will allow learners of all kinds to become familiar with and internalize the names, sounds, usage, and meaning of each of the letters of the Alef Bet (Hebrew alphabet) in a memorable way. Through beautiful illustrations and stimulating activities, children can explore the mystical–yet relevant and practical–secrets and stories of these holy letters.

PRACTICE CARDS

The Letter Lab Tabletop Cards are an extension pack to the Letter Lab Curriculum Cards. These smaller decks of cards extend your frontal lesson into activities your eager learners can do themselves. When the child manipulates these cards themselves, they build early literacy skills such as letter knowledge, phonemic awareness and Hebrew vocabulary.

G-Practice Cards

MORE LETTER KNOWLEDGE

Behold are 4 more card experiences for Hebrew Letter Knowledge woven together with Hebrew vocabulary.

These cards are divided into phases so children can learn a few letters and immediately transition into reading syllables and words.

H-Playdough Handwriting Mats

1-Encoding Letter Cards

J - Initial sound font sort

K - Last Letter Clip Cards

KAMATZ SYLLABLES

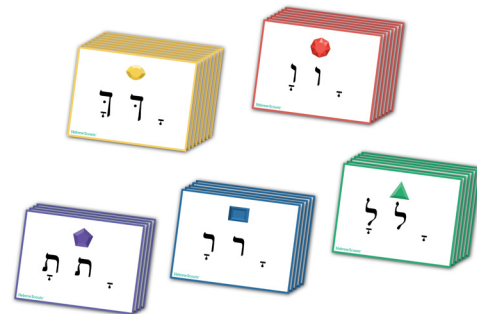

Behold are 4 card game experiences to prepare children for Hebrew Literacy in the areas of reading and writing syllables woven together with Hebrew vocabulary.

These cards are intended to be used after children learn the Alef Bet, yet the experiences are divided into segments so children can start syllable learning once they know the first few letters.

L- Initial Sound Sort

M- Vowel + Letter = Syllable

N- Syllable Reading Cards

O- Syllable to Word Matching

READING & SPELLING WORDS

Behold are 3 card game experiences for early Hebrew word reading.

These cards are divided into phases so children can immediately start reading words once they have learned a few letters and syllables with the first vowel, Kamatz. Once they learn more letters and syllables, they can progress and read more words. The activities in this series support the children for the Letter Lab Decodable Books for Alef Bet Learners.

P- Vocabulary Cards

Q- Encoding Word Cards

R- Word List Reading Cards

S- Word Picture Match

LETTER LAB & KAMATZ DECODABLE BOOKS FOR ALEF BET LEARNERS

Here is a set of 9 decodable book for children who are learning the Alef Bet.

With these books, children can read simple, yet interesting and fun books before they know all the letters. For example, for the first book Av–Father, a child would only need to know three letters and three syllables with the first vowel kamatz. For the second book, Dag–Fish, a child would only need to know five letters and five syllables with the same kamatz vowel. Right away, children can begin to use their early knowledge of letter, syllable and word to read real wholesome books. They can quickly experience the joy of reading for pleasure and for meaning.

These books are designed for the most novice learners that are working on reading words, short phrases and the most simplest sentences. The intention if to help children build interest, stamina and fluency for Hebrew literature while minimizing the amount of letters and vowels they need to know.

Decodable Books

